

NOT YOUR PRINCESS

Here are the lyrics for a comedy performer / non singer.

[VERSE]

Who is she? Who's that chick?
Too much sparkle, too much flick!
Glitter crown, drama queen,
Not your fairy tale machine!

[CHORUS]

Not your princess, not your tale
You're not the one to make it right!
No more waiting, no more fools
We make the world — we write the rules!

[VERSE]

Jon, don't stay, you better run
This princess game's no fun!
Waiting on a prince to come,
Riding in, all fancy, dumb!

[VERSE]

No prince here, just boots and jeans
Not into castles or queens
Why save her if she's got claws?
I'm here to break the laws!

[CHORUS]

Not your princess, not your tale
You're not the one to make it right!
No more waiting, no more fools
We make the world — we write the rules!

[BRIDGE / BREAK]

Hey! You out there — come on up!
Let's break the fairy tale — shake it up!

[FINAL CHORUS]

Not your princess, not your tale
You're not the one to make it right!
No more waiting, no more fools
We make the world — we write the rules!
